

I oppose Sinclair's use of our public airwaves for free pro Bush, anti Kerry, politically motivated advertisements .

It does not serve the public interest to allow such one sided, politically motivated activity.

It does not matter that they have invited John Kerry to appear since it is such a biased, out of date, slanderous program.

For the sake of our democracy, we need to restrict consolidation of media that is exemplified by the Sinclair Broadcasting Corporation.

The latter's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

I think that reliving the Vietnam era in order to avoid the present day issues is a disservice to the voting public.

I know that your sense of fair play will encourage you to make the right decision and prevent this abuse from occurring and not set a poor precedence.

Sincerely, Jean Strahlendorf
